SCCA Solo Event: 2017 Tire Rack SCCA Solo Nationals

Protestor: Alexandra Zust, XP 96

Protestee: Chief of Registration and Related Event Officials

Specifically: Per the event schedule B.7, the schedule handed out to the competitors, and B.8 from the events supplementals, no class changes after 5:00 pm Wednesday, September 6, 2017. Event officials made class changes that affected national championship awards and contingencies in XPL. As of 5 pm Wednesday September 6, 2017, Alexandra was informed XPL had one entrant from registration.

Comments / Penalty Imposed:

Protest was well founded. Protest fee was returned.

Based on the Event Supplementals for the 2017 Tire Rack SCCA Solo Nationals, ño changes [are allowed] after 5:00pmñ on Wednesday, September 6, 2017. The protest committee finds, based on automated time stamps from the registration computers, that two class changes and one new entry were accepted after 5:00pm, September 6, 2017, that impacted class X-Prepared Ladies (XPL).

The protest committee has determined that these class changes and new entry should not have been accepted, based on the Event Supplementals and therefore should not be officially recognized.

The impact of this decision is that the entry and run times for XPL 117 (Tracy Lewis, 1st finisher provisionally) and XP 17 (Alyssa Lewis, 2nd finisher provisionally) will be moved to class C-Prepared Ladies (CPL). Both drivers were correctly registered in CPL at 5:00pm, September 6, 2017. Additionally, this change has no impact to other drivers in CPL as there were no entries in that class. These entrants should not have been granted a class change and accepted after the cutoff.

Secondly, the entry and run times for XPL 88 (Duchess P. Langley, a.k.a. Sandi Brown, 5th finisher provisionally) will be excluded from the event results completely as this was a new entry after 5:00p, September 6, 2017.

Note: XPL 72 (Kim Bollinger) and XPL 98 (Emily Langley) are not impacted by this decision as both entries/class changes were completed correctly prior to 5:00p, September 6, 2017.

During the last hour for class changes in registration, the registration computer should accurately state the status of class entrants for each class. There should be no pending class changes that have not been updated to the computer in registration.

Committee Members: Chris Dorsey, Randy Hickman, Brian Haynes, Kevin Youngers (Chair)
